Reflections on a place. May 2010. David Gavaghan reflects on his time at SIB as he prepares to leave Northern Ireland. As I clear my desk, re-discovering old documents, I look out of my window at the eerily silent Belfast City Airport, with the magnificent backdrop of Divis and Black Mountain and Belfast Harbour.

The reflection toolkit. Reflection requires a number of skills which can easily be developed. Self-awareness - an ability to pause, to pay attention to thoughts and feelings and to self-question non-judgementally. This will help you to become aware of your habitual ways of thinking and behaving in any given situation).

Sometimes you will receive reflections that are hard to mark against your criteria or are indeed better than your rubric would suggest. However, having a rubric will give you a place to start for these reflections. If you find that your rubric consistently misses aspects this would suggest the criteria need updated.

In March of 1982, Jon's first wife, Terry, at the age of 28, was taken to heaven. Twelve years later, Jon's 16-year-old daughter Jessie was also taken home to Heaven. This book is a testament to God's abundant faithfulness, not only to the husband and the father who is looking forward to the day he will see them again, but to all those whose hearts long for Heaven. Comprised of Pastor Jon's teachings on Heaven and its impact on earthly life.

Winner of the 2017 Catholic Press Association Book Award: Collections of Prayers (First Place). Are you a Catholic mom who prays for the wisdom and patience to get through each day? Do you pray for your children, husband, family and friends, and sometimes even yourself? The Catholic Mom's Prayer Companion offers a new, daily resource to make the most of those few, precious minutes you have to pause and reflect. For more than fifteen years, the award-winning CatholicMom.com website has been a trusted source for sound, practical, and spiritual guidance. In their new book, authors Lisa M. Hendey and Sarah A. Reinhard bring together more than eighty moms, dads, and trusted spiritual companions to provide fresh, uplifting meditations for every day of the year. You'll find encouragement when you're struggling, reassurance when you feel alone, and comfort when you're distracted by worry. Created by moms for moms, these hope-filled meditations touch on the issues and concerns you face as you try to get through the day with a sense of God's presence in your life. Whether you are a new or seasoned mom working in or outside of your home, this inspiring collection of reflections for every day of the year will help you stay in touch with the seasons of the Church year; remember Mary's loving presence on her feast days; keep company with both new and familiar saints; see the spiritual meaning of secular holidays; and make you smile with occasions such as Houseplant Appreciation Day and National Popcorn Day. Each day begins with a brief quotation from scripture, saints, recent popes, or important spiritual writers. A personal reflection—written by contributors including Danielle Bean, Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle, Lisa Mladinich, Elizabeth Scalia, Carolyn Woo, Mark Hart, and Jeff Young—focuses on some dimension of your spiritual, emotional, intellectual, or physical life. Each day also includes a brief prayer and a question or thought to ponder throughout the day. In just a few minutes of quiet you'll find the boost you need from a friendly voice. Each month also has a special theme such as love, family fun, and slowing down. Start these reflections any time throughout the year and feel your days become more grace-filled and inspired.

Have you ever gone to church but, by the time you returned home, forgot the message of the day? Have you written notes from a sermon on a church bulletin, napkin, random piece of paper, or even in a notebook but struggled to fully appreciate what you had written because your notes were confused or scattered? Reflections is designed to help you capture the essence of each spoken message and prompt you to reflect on them in a way that draws you closer to God. Reflections is not just a journal. It is a place for you to analyze, evaluate, and make sense of the teachings you receive and to develop a deeper meaning of the Word.

This is a book of reflection and meditation to give you encouragement and greater spiritual depth.

Recognising that problems with body image are often the lead cause of eating disorders, therapists are increasingly looking for innovative and effective ways to address these issues with clients. This book is packed with simple, inexpensive art-based activities that use a range of media to engage with common body image concerns openly and creatively. The activities employ basic principles from Behavioral Therapy including mindfulness and emotion regulation and use common and familiar objects to create a reassuring environment. Discussion and evaluation are encouraged throughout to enhance awareness and appreciation of self. All the exercises, and their objectives, are thoroughly explained with illustrative case studies and sample artworks from the author's extensive therapeutic experience. These adaptable art exercises will be the perfect resource for any professional to promote healthy body image in group or individual work, with girls and women. They can be used as preventative strategies with girls still developing their identities, and will be especially useful at all stages of eating disorder treatment programs.

The author is completely perplexed by the marvels in this world and beyond. His reflections are summarized in four different chapters: on Nature, the Universe, Intelligence, and finally the ultimate question: Why are we here? Of course, answers to such questions are very personal and will be far from complete. Perhaps, more questions are asked than answers can ever be given. The material for his reflections was borrowed from the scientific literature, his own research and from books of wisdom, primarily from the different writings of the prophets and the apostles in ther Bible

Reflections: Conversations with God is a book geared towards my journey of getting to know Jesus Christ. I started sharing quotes that I deemed as God's words to me on social media, and a friend of mine asked me to think of a hashtag so that I would not lose those quotes. His exact words: "Trust me, you will use these one day." The book starts with a spoken-word poem called reflections. The poem reflects on my journey growing up; this sets the tone of the emotional journey we must sometimes face in life. Behind every inspiring quote, a life changing experience occurs. You will notice I do not use chapters, I use dates and quotes. I did this purposely so that I can make this personal and connecting. I am a true believer that God speaks to us in many different ways, if we are ready to listen. He will give you the answers you seek. In this book, I also included pictures that help explain the story I am telling. I pray this book not only encourages you but expands your mind to believe in His everlasting love.

Judith Early came to Balsam Ridge, as a privileged only child of affluent Boston parents to locate the love of her life. A decade has passed transforming her from a pampered young woman to that of a loving wife, a loyal friend, and a competent nurse with her husband Dr. Jim Bradley. The journey from seeing herself as a short-term visitor to putting down deep roots of contentment in this isolated, mountain community was not without struggle. Now, facing one of those defining moments, without warning Judith's contented life is tragically uprooted overnight. Like the mountain streams when encountering those unmovable boulders, she must now find a new course in moving forward. Where will she go? What will she do? There is nothing left. It would seem even God has abandoned her.

The poems written for this book were written to entertain the reader, and I hope that the reader takes something out of it in a positive way. The majority of the poems that I have written were written for the person's everyday point of view and derive from the surroundings and goings-on in daily lives. These poems were written from an idea that has brought them to life with paper and ink.
