Carmen (novella) - Wikipedia

Carmen stole your watch; she wanted your money, too, and above all that ring I see on your finger, which, she said, was a magnificent ring, which it was most important for her to own. We had a violent quarrel, and I struck her.

Carmen | Prosper Merimee

Prosper Mérimée (French: [meʁime]; 28 September 1803 – 23 September 1870) was a French writer in the movement of Romanticism, and one of the pioneers of the novella, a short novel or long short story. He was also a noted archaeologist and historian, and an important figure in the history of architectural preservation.

Prosper Mérimée - Wikipedia

The novella by a French dramatist Prosper Mérimée was written in 1845. It became world-famous mostly thanks to the opera of the same name by Georges Bizet. The passionate love story of the proud Basque Don José Navarro and the freedom-loving Spanish gypsy Carmen is revealed before the reader by the author-narrator.

Carmen, by Prosper Merimee - Project Gutenberg

Prosper Mérimée created Carmen in 1845. But Georges Bizet's opera, which premiered in 1875, made her world-famous. The folkloric, magic and passionate elements in the storyline make the novella a typical example of Romanticism. The narrator's background story adds a realistic, authentic veneer to the story.
