Even if you're not up for tempo runs or track work, strides can be a great way to maintain some speed. Start with four to six strides at the end of a run; accelerate for the first 25 or so meters, transition into your near top speed for the middle portion, then decelerate for the final bit. Take a few seconds to recover and then repeat.

Start with ground rules. To ensure a smooth workshop, especially when some participants might not be familiar with remote settings, you should start with a set of ground rules. Those always include basic video call hygiene (e.g., everyone's video should always be on; everyone should be on mute by default; and similar).
